

1 After action on all amendments given prior 2 recognition, a delegate will be recognized to move the 3 previous question.

4 The purpose of this is to enable the Convention
5 to determine whether it desires to consider amendments
6 other than those which have been submitted in writing 7 sufficiently in advance so that everyone can see them and 8 whether it desires to consider amendments other 9 than those which have been sponsored by a sufficient number
10 of delegates.

11 If the previous question -- if the motion
12 for the previous question is not carried, we would, of 13 course, continue to receive any other amendments as they 14 were offered.

15 Under the Convention rules there is no limitation
16 on debate other than the 15-minute limitation on each 17 speech.

18 Quite obviously if the debate on second readers
19 is very extended, the work of the entire Convention
20 could be slowed very materially, however, there is no
21 procedure by which the Convention could adopt a debate
